The Açaí berry (pronounced ah-sigh-EE) is one of the most nutritious and most powerful foods in the world. Native to tropical Central and South America, from Belize to the Brazilian Amazon, the Açaí is a delicious, highly-prized purple berry that possesses potent antioxidant properties. These antioxidant nutrients help to seek out and destroy roaming free radicals that can frustrate good health and drain your body of energy.†

Açaí is rich in B vitamins, vitamin E, minerals such as iron and calcium, fiber, proteins, Omega fatty acids, amino acids and anthocyanin, a member of the flavonoid class of antioxidants.

At Trace Minerals Research, we offer three choices of Açaí. Liquid Açaí contains whole, organic açaí juice, plus natural fruit juices from pomegranate, blueberry, red sour cherry and other fruit juices plus ConcenTrace® trace minerals.

Liquid Pure Açaí contains 30,000 mg per serving of 100% whole, pure açaí juice and ConcenTrace®.

Açaí Caps with ConcenTrace® contains 1000 mg of pure, organic, whole fruit açaí in a capsule form.

Whichever product suits you best, rest assured we back it up with our 100% satisfaction guarantee, Feel the Difference or Your Money Back!
